ordered the construction in the fortifications of Paris of a basin 480 meters in length, in which miniature models are to be kept of all the war ships to be built hereafter for France.

The German army has a swimming school for troops, where every one must learn to swim. The best swimmers are to cross a stream of several hundred yards width, even when carrying their clothing, rifle and ammunition.

Fruit.

Plenty of seasonable fruit should be eaten every month in the year. Apples are especially wholesome in the winter, when most meat is eaten, as they contain acids which increase the solubility of the blood and cause it to circulate more freely in the delicate blood vessels called the capillaries.

Chinese Seamen.

Seamen on native river craft in China get $3 a month and on seagoing Chinese vessels $8. They furnish their own food.

Tea in India.

The half million acres cultivated in tea in India produce 190,000,000 pounds, the investment being about $100 an acre. The labor required is thirteen persons to the acre. One pound of India tea will produce seven and one-half gallons of tea of a given strength, while the tea of China will produce but five gallons.

Discredited Natives.

In the government of their East Indian possessions the Dutch have a law which provides that the testimony of one white man shall be equal to that of seven natives.
